

Announcements (Continued)

Save The Date – Blessing of the Animals: The annual Blessing of the Animals will take place in the Memorial Garden on Sunday, 8 October at 4:30 PM.

St. Michael's Calendar: As we get ready to end the summer, and start our fall activities, now is a good time to make sure that your planned events for the year are included on the Parish Calendar. The calendar can be reviewed at <http://stmichaelsarlington.org/calendar.html>. If you see anything that needs to be added, or changed, contact Wil in the Parish Office, parishoffice@stmichaelsarlington.org.

Parish Directory: A draft of the Parish Directory is available for review and edit at the bottom of the steps in the Parish Hall. Please review and mark any changes on the draft copy. We are on our way with photos to be included in the directory. If you haven't gotten yours in, please forward to the Parish Office at parishoffice@stmichaelsarlington.org (.jpeg format preferred.) If you have a hard copy photo you would like to use instead, drop by the Parish Office and Wil will scan it for you.

Wednesday "Lunch Bunch" Book Group: We resume monthly meetings on September 27, at noon in the library. You are welcome to bring a bagged lunch as we discuss our summer reading, Member of the Wedding by Carson McCullers, and select books for the 2017/18 program year. Our only criteria for selection is that the book be widely available (usually from local libraries) and moderate in length (300-350 pages). Fiction, non-fiction; recently written or a "timeless classic" – our selections are as varied as our members, so consider joining us – for one month or all! Questions? Contact Barb Adams, barb6924@verizon.net.

Liturgical Dance Class/Performance Group now forming!

Who: Anyone age 8-adult who enjoys worship through movement and music, no prior dance experience required. What: Combines elements of ballet, modern and classic jazz dance as an expression of worship. Participants will present their dances periodically as part of worship services at area churches (including Mount Olivet). Liturgical classes are offered free of charge through Perfect Pointe Dance Studio. When: Tuesdays 7:45-8:30pm 9/12-12/5, presentation dates TBD early-mid Dec. Where: Perfect Pointe Dance Studio, Arlington, VA

Rebecca Guild to Host Presentation on Arlington Murals: Long-time Arlington resident Toby McIntosh visits St. Michael's on September 28 at 1:00 p.m. to discuss his book Apple Picking, Tobacco Harvesting and General Lee: Arlington's New Deal Murals and

Announcements (Continued)

Save The Date – Blessing of the Animals: The annual Blessing of the Animals will take place in the Memorial Garden on Sunday, 8 October at 4:30 PM.

St. Michael's Calendar: As we get ready to end the summer, and start our fall activities, now is a good time to make sure that your planned events for the year are included on the Parish Calendar. The calendar can be reviewed at <http://stmichaelsarlington.org/calendar.html>. If you see anything that needs to be added, or changed, contact Wil in the Parish Office, parishoffice@stmichaelsarlington.org.

Parish Directory: A draft of the Parish Directory is available for review and edit at the bottom of the steps in the Parish Hall. Please review and mark any changes on the draft copy. We are on our way with photos to be included in the directory. If you haven't gotten yours in, please forward to the Parish Office at parishoffice@stmichaelsarlington.org (.jpeg format preferred.) If you have a hard copy photo you would like to use instead, drop by the Parish Office and Wil will scan it for you.

Wednesday "Lunch Bunch" Book Group: We resume monthly meetings on September 27, at noon in the library. You are welcome to bring a bagged lunch as we discuss our summer reading, Member of the Wedding by Carson McCullers, and select books for the 2017/18 program year. Our only criteria for selection is that the book be widely available (usually from local libraries) and moderate in length (300-350 pages). Fiction, non-fiction; recently written or a "timeless classic" – our selections are as varied as our members, so consider joining us – for one month or all! Questions? Contact Barb Adams, barb6924@verizon.net.

Liturgical Dance Class/Performance Group now forming!

Who: Anyone age 8-adult who enjoys worship through movement and music, no prior dance experience required. What: Combines elements of ballet, modern and classic jazz dance as an expression of worship. Participants will present their dances periodically as part of worship services at area churches (including Mount Olivet). Liturgical classes are offered free of charge through Perfect Pointe Dance Studio. When: Tuesdays 7:45-8:30pm 9/12-12/5, presentation dates TBD early-mid Dec. Where: Perfect Pointe Dance Studio, Arlington, VA

Rebecca Guild to Host Presentation on Arlington Murals: Long-time Arlington resident Toby McIntosh visits St. Michael's on September 28 at 1:00 p.m. to discuss his book Apple Picking, Tobacco Harvesting and General Lee: Arlington's New Deal Murals and

Muralist. In the book, McIntosh recounts the stories depicted in each of seven colorful murals in the Joseph L. Fisher Post Office on Washington Boulevard in Clarendon and discusses their creator, spiritualist and artist Auriel Bessemer (1909-1986). The WPA-era oil paintings, installed in 1940 in Arlington's first federal building, are Arlington's first public art works. All are invited to attend the presentation, which is hosted by the Rebecca Guild. Maureen Doallas

Bible Challenge and Beyond(ers): The Bible Challenge and Beyond(ers) group started with the intent to read the Bible and have since continued beyond that challenge to examine additional material that explores or is related to the Bible. The BCB's are starting up for the year on Friday 22 September at 3 PM in the Parish Library. We welcome and encourage newcomers to join us as we explore the Bible. Completing a Bible Challenge is not a prerequisite to join us. Starting on 22 September and running roughly until Advent we'll be reading The Path the story of the Bible, excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version so that it is clear and easy to read. As reviewer Jana Riess states "The Path is a perfect entry point for people who want to know more about the Bible but don't know where to start."

Another Side of Desegregation in Arlington: The Arlington Historical Society and Marymount University are teaming to present a discussion with a panel of Arlingtonians on Arlington's efforts to desegregate since the 1950s. The discussion takes place on Thursday, 14 September at 7 PM in the Reinsch Library Auditorium at Marymount University. Additional information is available on handouts in the Parish Hall.

Muralist. In the book, McIntosh recounts the stories depicted in each of seven colorful murals in the Joseph L. Fisher Post Office on Washington Boulevard in Clarendon and discusses their creator, spiritualist and artist Auriel Bessemer (1909-1986). The WPA-era oil paintings, installed in 1940 in Arlington's first federal building, are Arlington's first public art works. All are invited to attend the presentation, which is hosted by the Rebecca Guild. Maureen Doallas

Bible Challenge and Beyond(ers): The Bible Challenge and Beyond(ers) group started with the intent to read the Bible and have since continued beyond that challenge to examine additional material that explores or is related to the Bible. The BCB's are starting up for the year on Friday 22 September at 3 PM in the Parish Library. We welcome and encourage newcomers to join us as we explore the Bible. Completing a Bible Challenge is not a prerequisite to join us. Starting on 22 September and running roughly until Advent we'll be reading The Path the story of the Bible, excerpted from the New Revised Standard Version so that it is clear and easy to read. As reviewer Jana Riess states "The Path is a perfect entry point for people who want to know more about the Bible but don't know where to start."

Another Side of Desegregation in Arlington: The Arlington Historical Society and Marymount University are teaming to present a discussion with a panel of Arlingtonians on Arlington's efforts to desegregate since the 1950s. The discussion takes place on Thursday, 14 September at 7 PM in the Reinsch Library Auditorium at Marymount University. Additional information is available on handouts in the Parish Hall.