

Announcements (Continued)

Opportunity to Donate School Supplies for Refugee and Foster Children: Lutheran Social Services (LSS) is seeking donations of school supplies for refugee and foster children as well as Youth Haven clients. The donations need to be delivered to an LSS office by 21 August. If any parish members wish to donate school supplies of any type, please let Maureen Doallas know. She plans to collect them a coffee hour on Sunday 6 August and deliver them to the LSS office in Falls Church. The list of needed items includes: backpacks (new or lightly used), notebooks, pens, pencils, calculators, markers, crayons, loose leaf paper, binders, and folders. Anything else that can be used as a school supply, such as scissors or glue, etc. Backpacks are most needed.

Monday Mugs: The next Monday Mugs with St. Mike's will be at 7 PM on 24 July at Two Chefs (on Wilson Blvd). Our topic will be: Are we living in a post-Christian era? If so, what does that mean for us and what are we called to do? Contact Helen Hines for more information.

Annual Diocesan Cursillo Ultreya Reunion: The reunion will be held from 9:30 to 2:00 on 12 August at St. Mary's Episcopal Church 203 Dennison Street Colonial Beach, Va. For more information contact Rev. Tom Hughes at adenstone@gmail.com.
